E) GET SMART ABOUT TAXES:

- 1) Start today keeping good records!
     Keep a small datebook on the seat of your car to record all Mary Kay trips!
- 2) Get receipts for every Mary Kay expenditure - lunches, parking, purchases, etc!
- 3) Keep good records of product used for hostess credit, demonstration, sold at discount, personal use and money not collected on product sold.
     Prepare sales slips for all product taken out of inventory.
- 4) Because Mary Kay is a unique business, make sure your tax preparer understands the Mary Kay business.
